“ MY HELP COMES FROM THE LORD, THE MAKER OF HEAVEN AND EARTH”
PSALM 121:2

Wednesday, 1 | We give the Lord thanks for his many blessings over the past month. In the light of this, we give thanks for a successful Unity conference led by SU KZN and for the appointment of Graydon Scholtz our new independent schools' worker in this region. Our SU Gauteng region is also grateful for the nearly 500 children reached with the gospel during the last school holiday.

Thursday, 2 | Thank you, Lord for the 170 attendees at both the Unity Conference and Unity meeting held in the KZN region. We pray that the inspiration they gained will enable each of them to influence their schools for you, Lord.

Friday, 3 | We celebrate the miraculous healing and turn around for the son of Alice China, our National Finance Manager in response to prayers prayed. We give you thanks Father.

Saturday, 4 | We bring the HH Camp in our SU Algoa region taking place this weekend to you, Lord. We ask for wisdom and guidance for each leader as they minister.

Sunday, 5 | We ask Lord for your presence and blessing upon the commissioning service taking place at Bethsaida International Ministries in KZN today. Confirm the calling of each Phoenix mission partner who will be commissioned today.

Monday, 6 | Today marks the start of our International Week of Prayer. We invite you to set this special week aside to pray for Scripture Union around the world. Let us pause to give thanks for the more than 120 countries in which we are currently ministering.

Tuesday, 7 | Lord we lift up our SU Algoa team to you as they lead their Business People Breakfast over the next two days. May we have the right people present, God, as we build financial and prayer partnerships.

Wednesday, 8 | SU South Africa will be leading an International half-an-hour prayer time as part of its prayer week today. Kindly follow our social media platforms to keep abreast of the events and prayers for the balance of the week. Please keep Daryl Henning (our chaplain) in prayer as he guides us through this week.

Thursday, 9 | Kindly join us in prayer for the SU Western Cape team as they prepare for their Business People's Breakfast meeting taking place tomorrow. We trust you, Lord, for good networks and many new people who will catch the vision and support the work in this region. We also invite you to pray for our SU properties today and for an important meeting taking place around our National Office Campground Road building today.

Friday, 10 | Our prayers today are centred upon our SU Amatola region in and around East London and beyond. We bring Mzwabantu Ndzima before you and pray for him and his volunteers as they plan for their mini Olympics and camps. Please provide for the work in this part of your vineyard, Lord.

Saturday, 11 | We have a grateful heart for the six volunteers who were recently trained for schools' ministry in the Western Cape. May they know the blessing of the Lord upon their calling and work.

Sunday, 12 | Thank you, Lord, for the influence and opportunities we have in the lives of young people within their school contexts. In the light of this we thank you for the graduation of the 290 grade 7 learners at Them bani and Zimasa Primary Schools in the Western Cape.

Monday, 13 | Father we pray for SU Algoa's Vuyokazi Hoza and her team today as they finish off their ministry work at Nyebo Primary School this month. Make them a blessing in the school and surrounding community, bringing hope and support.

Tuesday, 14 | Today we thank you for the value that Peter Nuttall continues to have in training resources. Please pray for the conversations in the meetings between Alan Pitt and Peter as they plan for his continued role in this, whilst he functions from the United Kingdom.

Wednesday, 15 | We thank the Lord for full camps taking place at our campsites and our prayer is for wisdom, sound management, good leadership and God's favour as we steward the wonderful resources he has given us in the SU Stoneyridge and Kadash Barnea campsites.

Thursday, 16 | We thank the Lord today for the SU Bookshop and resources that have blessed many customers over the years. We ask for wisdom, guidance and provision in this work, Lord.

Friday, 17 | God, we pray for our SU Gauteng region today as they in turn run their Business People's Breakfast meeting today. Our prayer is that you will draw generous people who will catch the vision and be inspired to partner with SU in your kingdom work.

Saturday, 18 | We bring before you today, Lord, our SU Algoa Children's Ministry Training taking place this weekend. We pray for Kwakes, Natasha, Vuyokazi and all volunteers involved.

Sunday, 19 | We are preparing for our 100-year celebration for 2024 and there are numerous events and ministry projects on the go around this. Please remember to pray for Jodi Bridgens (our SU social media and marketing staff member) as she coordinates and champions this project on our behalf.

Monday, 20 | We ask that our prayers be focussed around our SU systems today. We pray especially that our database and debit order systems will be accurate and enable us to support and enhance our relationship with our supporters and potential supporters. We remember Lucinda Hendricks and Chad Roberts particularly in this regard.

Tuesday, 21 | As we commit our SU finances to the Lord, we pray for the number of funding proposals that have been submitted. Our prayer is that these will land in the hands of the right decision-makers. And we pray for God's favour.

Wednesday, 22 | We thank you, Lord, for the many new connections made with Christian business people recently, especially a women's business group. Thank you for the favour granted to Mariska de Beer and we pray that you will continue to open doors for her in this regard.

Thursday, 23 | We want to thank you, God, for the many volunteers who so graciously give of their time, energy and resources. Bless those who serve on committees, camps, and in prayer, Lord.

Friday, 24 | Today we want to bring Marc Nadler (SU IT Manager) . May he know your hand of favour upon his life as he continues to be such a resource and blessing to us in a variety of ways.

Saturday, 25 | We trust you God for a successful SU Algoa High-Tea fundraising event taking place today in this region. We ask that they will not only meet their target but also gain commitment to the vision by those present.

Sunday, 26 | This weekend has seen both Mini and Teen camp leaders' training take place in the Western Cape. Our leaders are critical to the living out of the gospel at our camps and we pray that they will be well prepared both practically and spiritually.

Monday, 27 | We are very grateful for the resources to translate some of our resources for the deaf community. Please pray for Alan Pitt and Mpumi Jemane as they lead this exciting project.

Tuesday, 28 | One of proposals for funding has been for fresh work in the Northern Cape based in Kimberley. We are grateful for the continued ministry of volunteers and we ask, Lord, that you will open up a way to grow and expand the work in this region.

Wednesday, 29 | We want to pray today for all of the preparation taking place for our December camping season across the country. We ask for full camps and leaders who will carry the gospel to children and teenagers with passion and skill.

Thursday, 30 | We end this month with a prayer of thanks for the KZN Missions Partners final meeting for the year. May they be refreshed and renewed to finish well. We also ask that the lives of the 110 SU Gauteng Brandsvlei Primary children will be touched by your spirit this weekend. We commit Chicks Radise and the team to you as they lead this camp.
